To avoid any misconception or doubt, this is not a contract of insurance, a guarantee or an insurance policy. This is an Agreement between us and you for specific services we provide at our absolute sole discretion. All Quick Cover Agreements were designed to function similarly to the underwriting model necessary in the insurance industry however we are solely independent unlike the traditional warranty companies that, in most cases, are owned by or contracted to an insurance company or are functioning on an insured basis. As a service provider, Quick Cover operates on a non-insurance basis, which allows us to keep our costs low. We are not registered by the Financial conduct authority as our Agreement falls outside of the FCA's remit.
